Abstract

In this thesis formation of guardianship of his Excellency the prophet and those of the house have been examined based on Imam Khomeini's view and also what is in mysticism and narratives.

According to mystic bases the invisible of mysterious that is hidden in Mohamadieh's truth guardianship that is obvious has appeared.

Guardianship has formation and religious law areas. The religious law guardianship is the appearance of formation guardianship and the proportion of formation guardianship of the prophet lineage in proportion to other guardians and prophets is the proportion of the environment to surrounded or appraiser to that which has firmness.

From another aspect guardianship has a particular and a general domain. General guardianship includes all of those who have faith but particular guardianship is the protection of the truth of his excellency the one who has the final ranking and his pure family and that originally belongs to that pure lineage.
