

Thesis Title: Imam Khomeini's historic decrees about blasphemy of Salam Rushdie and its jurisprudence fundamentals, roots and consequences

By Ali Shokri

Presented at IRGC's center for higher education and training of religious and political instructors

Dated: 1377 AH

Abstract

In this thesis the writer points out the heathen's undertakings when the prophet invited in a general way the people to believe in Islam in chapter one and he points out the variety of conspiracies.

In chapter two he points out the acceptance of the Islam in Iran until the victory of the Islamic revolution and the variety of conspiracies against that revolution. In chapter three he examines the book tilted satanic signs and in chapter four he talks about the heresy border that has to do with freedom of expression.

Also in the last chapter he examines the consequences of the historical decree of Imam Khomeini (peace be upon him) with respect to Salman Rushdie and in that area he talks to some thinkers.

Key words: History of Islam, Imam Khomeini, conspiracies against Revolution, Salman Rushdie