The essence

This dissertation is on definition of prosperity and happiness of human being according to Imam Khomeini's mystical and philosophic tracks and his description of the meaning of human and the way of achieving happiness. Human being by nature is after happiness and absolute wellbeing and during his life searches for. The human that Imam draws, is not convicted to fatal obligation and by help of the jewel of free will can overcome every obstacle and produces his prosperity. Happiness is not of human's nature and he's got to achieve it through his efforts. Human being as long as he's alive he's got the power to save him from every level of flaw, defect, cruelty, polytheism and hypocrisy, and take him to degrees of prosperity, happiness and evolution. Knowledge and insight of human being about life, the existing world, the creation and people paves his way towards happiness.
