Abstract:

The poems of his excellency Imam Khomeini (peace be upon him) are beautiful and delicate and thus are confidential and are related to the mystics being alone and their privacy and are familiar with literatures. Those poems should be placed especially in mystic literature domain and from the aspect of scientific richness and mystic arguments they have an incredible value. In this thesis an effort has been made to examine those poems from the aspect of subjects and content that are political, mystic, social, religious and scientific.
