

FROM THE EDITOR-IN-CHIEF

OUR BELOVED IMAM

Our beloved Imam, you did not leave this world until you made manifest to the entire world that, true liberation and Independence lie in struggle and self reliance.

You did not bid this perishable world, adieu, until you completely shattered the card-board house of the arrogant powers of the East and the West. With fists and shouts of "Allah Akbar", you humiliated, exposed and broke the invincibility of the arrogant powers of the East and the West.

As the idol breaker of our time, voice of the voiceless, the spirit of the distressed, you steadfastly cut off the hands of the oppressors, subdued the arrogant, and stifled life out of the body of the imperialists and zionists. You removed the map of the muslim world, from obscurity and placed it in the limelight. You raised the already battered and shattered hopes and aspirations of the distressed.

Your entire life, was a complete guide and guard to the humanity. Your modesty, highly unprecedented in the annals of history of the modern power welders, your total renunciation of duniya and its entire fake and ephemeral goodies, your transparent honesty, your selflessness, the spirit of altruism all these are shining examples which will never escape the memory of the entire human race.

As a compassionate leader, a devoted and patient teacher, a loving father, a fantastic husband, and an uncompromising commander, but a tough and unrelent defender of justice, you established the justice of Islam.

The entire thing you possessed was Islam. Your life, your food, your drink, your vision and of course your goal, nothing was short of Islam.

When the entire world of kufr, imposed economic sanction on Iran, the symbol of muslim world, you still went ahead and raised decent human beings on empty stomach.

You said "we are the nation of hungry people, we would continue our quest, even with empty stomach"

Islam, was dear to you than anything in this world. You once said, "If I am still alive, I would never allow the world of Islam to flauter to the hands of the liberals".

How can we forget these indelible achievements.

You benefited the muslims and non-muslims alike. In line with the tradition of your great-grand father and leader, Mustapha Muhammad (SAW) you extended the invitation of truth (Islam), to the occupiers of the Krelim palace.

Today, Adhan can be heard in the compound of Krelim un-restricted, the aftermath of your invitation to the protectors of kufr.

Had it been there was escapism to death, we would have prayed to the Exalted Allah to spare your life. But Allah destined death to be inevitable for all.

Infact nothing was too significant for you to sacrifice for the great goal (Islam). When your beloved son, Hujjatule Islam Mustapha was martyred by Idol protectors, you never wavered, the attention remained undistracted. The journey must continue, the struggle must be intensified. Even the dungeon and inhuman gaol of the oppressors could not removed a single hair from your body.

Today, the occupiers of the 'Black house' dread the name 'Khomeini' more than anything in this world.

We shall ever remain grateful to Allah, for your achievements. We shall ever hymn the praises of Allah for His mercy on us, for your well spent life.

May Allah (May He be Exalted) enrobe your soul with His choicest benedictions.
