

Reflection of Imam Khomeini's (PBUH) political thoughts in students will and they were martyred

Writer: Mojtaba Babakhani

Submitted to: Imam Sadegh university

Synopsis:

Iran's Islamic revolution like many of the big revolutions of the world in recent centuries was affected to a great extent by the views and thoughts of its leader. His excellency Imam Khomeini (peace be upon him) as a political and religious leader has undeniable influences on various strata of the people of Iran. Imagining Imam (peace be upon him) as an imagination of pure Islam led to the formation of many Islamic principles and values based on his views and thoughts and also his practical character sketch in the people's mind. The holy defense fighters and the martyrs of the forced war can be recognized as one of the strata that considering their religious beliefs were to a large extent influenced by the views and thoughts of Imam (peace be upon him) who died. Here Students that were martyred noting that they were more actively present in the social and political scene and also entered more the theoretical one have had more capability to be influenced by that. The main question of this research work is to examine how the components of political thoughts of Imam Khomeini (peace be upon him) reflect on the thoughts of students that were martyred. In order to count the most important components of the political thoughts of Imam Khomeini (peace be upon him) secondly examination of the views and thoughts of thinkers that are considered in the area of his thoughts are used and components such as axis assignment, seeking martyrdom, independence, freedom and... that are most repeated in their views are accepted as the most important ones regarding his excellency Imam's (peace be upon him) political thoughts. Also the most important components of political thoughts of students who were martyred noting the existing limits regarding getting their political thoughts using the content analysis method are extracted and examined from their will and them and basic components of his Excellency's political thoughts are compared and at the same time evaluated.

Key words: Imam Khomeini (peace be upon him), political thought, will, those who were martyred, students, forced war