

An examination of his excellency Imam Khomeini's ideas regarding education and training with an emphasis on education and training of children

Writer: Ali Hosainalipour

Submitted to: Allameh Tabatabaee university (peace be upon him) training and psychology department

Year: 1388

Synopsis:

In order to have an efficient education and training system and one that assumes the responsibility of education and training rightly from childhood (the most sensitive period) it is essential to examine and then use the thoughts of thinkers and clear-sighted individuals such as Imam Khomeini (peace be upon him) in the area of education and training and specially education and training of children; also noting the untidiness of today's education and training system of our country the essentiality of carrying out such researches is more apparent. For that purpose, this research work examines the ideas of his excellency Imam Khomeini (peace be upon him) regarding training. Also Iran's Islamic society with respect to its training organizations needs to use the views of big thinkers such as his excellency Imam Khomeini (peace be upon him) regarding education and training specially education and training of children so that through those guidance individuals who are pious, God seeker and obliged are trained and moral progress of Muslims is in the direction of their scientific progresses.

Key words: Imam Khomeini, education and training, children