

An examination of talking models of Imam Khomeini (PBUH) and the bases of that that is in the Quran and Hadith (leaning on written works)

Writer: Azam Safaee

Submitted to: Islamic Azad university, Karaj unit, theology department

Synopsis:

Imam Khomeini (peace be upon him) based on beliefs bases emanating from the teachings of the generous Quran and the teachings of the innocent leaders has come to know principles and are attendant to them and they have influenced various aspects of his sayings including the appearance, method and the content of them. The principle of God being the axis and that is emanated from a belief that is determinate and it is with respect to Tawheed (unity), the principle of imitating those who are innocent is emanated from a belief regarding chastity and executorship of those great ones, the principle of being bound as far as practice is concerned regarding the Quran is emanated from believing that the generous Quran is a revelation book, the principle of human beings and they are worthy and that is emanated from believing that God has given generosity to Man, the principle of destruction of the world and material appearances and that is emanated from a belief that says that the latter does not endure and is unstable. Imam Khomeini (peace be upon him) based on those bases and thought principles regarding all of his sayings ranks leans on God and imitates those who are innocent and has taken a step to deepen Man's religious beliefs and to reform his cultural and social affairs having a goal that gives outlook, being able to guide and reform.

Key words: Imam Khomeini (peace be upon him), the Quran, anecdotes, God being the axis, the innocent ones, human beings, the world, culture, society, sayings