

An examination of the thoughts and training and cultural works of Imam Khomeini (PBUH)

Writer: Mohammad Reza Zarandzadeh

Submitted to: Islamic Azad university, Dezful unit

Year: 1387

Synopsis:

The aim of this research work is to examine the thoughts and training and cultural works of Imam Khomeini. This research work is a library one and its research method is descriptive. And Imam Khomeini's views with respect to the bases, principles, aims and training methods and from his books and speeches and also what his students and those who were close to him have expressed regarding his destinies and practical character sketch are examined and explained. First I have pointed to Imam Khomeini's training bases and they include unity understanding of the world and God being the axis, getting to know human beings with an emphasis on the topic of a nature that seeks God, epistemology that includes refining and purification of the self and comprehensiveness of training comprising training before apparent life and after the worldly life (after death) and noting the aspects of training and that is related to believing in pandemonium and reward and penalty of activities and then the principles of training citing Imam Khomeini's works including the principle regarding God being the axis, training, the principle of necessity and demand for training of human beings, the principle of perfection, seeking what is absolute, the principle regarding freedom of human beings, the principle regarding compatibility with human nature, the principle of the priority that reforming oneself has over reforming others, the principle of the priority that purification has over education, the principle of choosing more beneficial sciences for training and the principle of the effect of rule on the process of Islamic training are put forward. Regarding the goals of training according to Imam Khomeini the making of Godly human beings, moral training of human beings, blooming of human nature, reforming and refining of human beings and connection of human beings to absolute perfection are pointed to and training methods citing the works and the practical character sketch of Imam Khomeini, critical thought and outlook, revering personality, conscious mentioning and repeating and to take a lesson are considered. In this research work I have pointed to and there are some of those other training topics according to Imam Khomeini such as the role of the family and the mother regarding training of the child, the role of the teacher regarding training and the result of the training system of Imam Khomeini.

The general conclusion of this research work is this that Imam Khomeini's training system is a segment of a comprehensive system and he has been its founder and architect and implementation of components and the result of that training system meaning training of human beings who are the result of that training system and what comes tomorrow with respect to the latter belongs to them. The guarantee for the survival and continuation of that system will be comprehensive and valuable.

Key words: Imam Khomeini (peace be upon him), family, mothers, education and training, children, teachers, human beings, nature, perfection