

Influence of Imam Khomeini on Arab poetry in current era

By Seyyed Ghani Nazari Khanghah

Year: 2002

Abstract:

Imam Khomeini is one of the most outstanding and a privileged personality in between all of the thinkers of the world in the past decades and the world has not experienced a unique person like him in this era. It was the very he who by his great revolution restored the traditional dignity and magnitude to Islam. For this reason, his life was completely spent on progressing Islam, crusade for God, reviving religious values, fighting against colonialists and oppressors. Imam Khomeini in both life time and after impressed the Arab contemporary literature strongly so that plenty of Arab poets composed eulogies for him, through which they've expressed their honest heart feeling, pure emotions and new meaning inventions of meanings in new poetical frames. In addition, deep impression of Imam Khomeini's magnificent thoughts is also clearly seen in Arab poets' tracks. This research is a try in showing some poems of Arab poets in order to express the degree of effect of Imam's life, revolution and his departure on the Arabs societies especially poets of the region, which have been picked out of a big pile and have been explained.

Key words: Imam Khomeini, Contemporary Arab literature, Poetry, poet