

A study of Shia political thought with an emphasis on the ideals of Imam Khomeini

Author: Bi Niaz Baghbani

year: 1999

Abstract

In this research paper, the author discusses the role of factions and parties in various systems throughout different periods of history.

While reviewing the shia political thought throughout different periods and exploring issues related to parties and partisanship, has examined the thought of Imam Khomeini in this regard.

The author puts emphasis on Imam political thought and has undertaken detailed discussions in this regard.

Key words: Imam Khomeini, political thought, Shia, political parties, political groups