

Thesis title: Reviewing and examining the rulings of the holy defense from the point of viewpoint of Imam Khomeini

Author or writer: Ali Sabbour Darvish

University: Tehran branch of Islamic Azad University

Abstract

The present research paper examines attitude towards the rulings and views of Imam Khomeini regarding the holy defense.

The author started the research on this issue from the last half of 2016 and the outcome has been produced in an introduction and five chapters.

The author says he concluded the project with the assistance of the infallibles and divine blessings.

The chapters of the thesis come as following.

Islamic defense and the legal provisions of each one separately, as well as the motive, purpose and vision

War warriors and human values in defense have been discussed.

Chapter Two discusses various types of defense and its very basic existence, individual legitimate defense, the other party in defense and the types of each of them

The third chapter: the role of women in defense and their position in the past and the contemporary history has been discussed.

Chapter 4: It is about equipping forces in Islam and that the Islamic community should be prepared for all type of scenarios. And the army should be equipped with existing weapons.

Chapter 5: The discussions have been undertaken regarding value of a martyr, martyrdom from the point of view of the Qur'an, hadiths and from the perspectives of Imam Khomeini.

Keyword: Imam Khomeini, Islamic Ummah or society, types of defense, basic existence