

Thesis title: An investigative research about the relationship of foreign people and groups with Imam Khomeini

Author or winter: Marzieh Ziarati

University: Central Tehran branch of Islamic Azad University

Abstract:

In this thesis and research paper, the author has first explored the background of Imam's entry into the political and social scene and landscape of Iran

Then the writer conducts research regarding the communication between the Imam and Islamic-political currents abroad during last two decades ending towards victory of the revolution.

In the third chapter, Imam's guidelines in relation to foreign political events and personalities in are examined during this specific era.

And in the fourth part deals with the Imam's guidelines and content in relation to political movements and figures

In the final chapter, a series of useful discussions regarding foreign individuals and groups have been undertaken until era of Imam's heavenly departure and the thesis ends with a conclusion.

Keyword: Imam Khomeini, foreign individuals and groups, political and social scene, guidelines