

Thesis Title: The role and status of parliament from the point of view of Imam Khomeini

Author or writer: Mustafa Naseri

University: Central Tehran branch of Islamic Azad University

Abstract:

In this research paper and thesis, the role of the legislature in the governance of the Islamic Republic and its duties have been discussed first in the very beginning part.

Then the parliament and the separation of the powers among various branches of the government have been examined

Then the author addresses and discusses the issue of the rule of law from Imam Khomeini's point of view.

It also explained the position of the parliament and its resolutions

In the final chapter, the research presents the criteria for selecting the representative and deputies from the Imam's viewpoint

Keyword: Imam Khomeini, legislature, parliament, government, governance issues