

The revelation of religion and mysticism in the works of Imam Khomeini

Author: Hajee Babaeen Ameer, Fatemeh

Submitted to: The Islamic free university, the central Tehran unit, the department of literature and human sciences

Year: 2008

Abstract:

This research consists of a number of matters and they are as follows: an examination of religion and agnosticism, agnosticism and Imam, the life and the works of Imam Khomeini (peace be upon him), an examination of the positions and the states in mysticism according to those who are inclined toward agnosticism and his Excellency Imam (peace be upon him), the placing influence of the sheikhs on the formation of the thoughts of his Excellency Imam, a pondering of the most important agnostic works of his Excellency Imam, an examination of the agnostic thought, Imam's outlook concerning those who were inclined toward agnosticism and the features of his agnosticism, Imam and the Mohammadee pure mysticism, the general features of the pure agnosticism of Imam (peace be upon him), Imam and agnostic literature, stylistics according to the works of Imam, a comparative examination of the agnostic view of Imam and two famous poets and they were agnostic of the Farsi literature and an examination of some of the stark aspects that are in Imam's agnostic literature.

Keywords: Imam Khomeini (peace be upon him), religion, mysticism, Tasavof