

Pietism and the piousness of Imam Khomeini

Author: Mohammad Mehdi Roohparvar

The year: 1375

Submitted to: the political and the one that is of the ideas kind department of Shaheed mahalatee of the keepers of the corps of the Islamic revolution

Abstract:

In this article an effort has been made so that the level of the examination and the research regarding Imam Khomeini's piety and his piousness have a descriptive dimension and so that through that while resorting to his Excellency's valuable memory and his sayings that are of the jewel kind during and after the Islamic revolution and those as an alive model and a valuable sample of a unique personality and he was from the land of the innocents he would become an example of a lesson to be taught to that Imam's real followers. Through an excursion concerning the particular destinies and the unforgettable memories of that noble leader and also his worthy expressions and those are in Sahifeh Imam as a light that is always turned on and that is in front of the face of those who seek what is the right matter and his mystical letters to those who belong to the house and also the articles and the writings that have been regulated in the books, in the press and in the magazines concerning his Excellency's ethical features and all of those express this subject that the writer has carried out his research regarding them and I have made an effort to collect and put forward in this thesis a collection of the piety and the piousness of Imam Khomeini and that is famous as far as the particular ones and the general public are concerned and also that has been the secret of his success. The aim of this research concerning Imam's piousness and his piety is to examine the character sketch of that great leader and through that to direct the others toward a direction that we can through that have the general rules regarding the collection of Imam's behavior and his sayings since the period of when he was young until the time when he passed away; and then we should according with and through coordination with him make right our behaviors; and we should introduce Imam to the young generation after the revolution and also to the world as he was and not as such that some of those who have a claim want.

Key words: Imam Khomeini, the piety, the piousness

